

The University of Alaska Anchorage (UAA) transforms lives through teaching, research, community engagement and creative expression. The beautiful Anchorage campus, located in the University-Medical (UMED) district, is a dual-mission university, providing certificates, associate degrees, bachelors and graduate programs in a single location. UAA Puts Students First, with high quality, flexible, affordable programs and services.

UAA is the largest workforce training provider in the State of Alaska, with particular focus on healthcare, technology, trade skills, hospitality, and transportation. UAA’s one and two-year training programs impact all sectors of the Alaska economy, with their highly experienced faculty, modern equipment and facilities, and deep engagement with industry and Alaska businesses. UAA also ensures students in every program develop the four core competencies of Effective Communication, Creative & Critical Thinking, Personal, Professional and Community Responsibility, and Intercultural Fluency – skills industry leaders have expressed are vital for success.
