GRIEVANCE and ARBITRATION HIGHLIGHTS

University of Alaska Federation of Teachers (UAFT)

- UAF College of Rural and Community Development: The union filed a Step 2 grievance alleging that the university violated Article 9.1 of the CBA by placing two new faculty members at an extended site into the United Academics bargaining unit rather than into the UAFT unit. The university responded to the union on November 11, 2009, recommending that the substance of the grievance be reviewed and determined by the ALRA as part of the unit clarification proceeding. The grievance is being held in abeyance pending the outcome of the ALRA proceeding.

- UAA School of Nursing: The union filed a Step 2 grievance alleging that the university violated Article 5.1.A of the CBA by unilaterally changing the assignment of several nursing faculty members from Bipartite Vocational to Bipartite Academic. The university provided its position statement to the union on December 15, 2010. The parties held a Step 2 meeting on May 06, 2011. The Chancellor denied the grievance on June 16, 2011. The union appealed the decision to Step 3. The university notified the union on September 15, 2011 and moved the grievance to arbitration. The parties met on October 25, 2011 to strike arbitrators. The arbitration was scheduled for May 08-09, 2012 in Anchorage. On May 05, 2012 the parties jointly requested indefinite postponement of the grievance. The parties notified the arbitrator that we had reached an agreement on the disposition of the grievance and are working on a memorandum of understanding to resolve the matter.

United Academics (UNAC)

- UAF International Arctic Research Center: The union filed a Step 2 grievance on January 6, 2012 alleging that the university violated just cause, due process, and disciplinary investigation, (Article 11.1 and Article 11.2) when it issued a notice of inquiry to a faculty member without notifying the union. The Step 2 grievance meeting was scheduled for January 31, 2012. The university provided a Step 2 response on February 15, 2012. The union met with their grievance committee, and subsequently called a meeting with their executive board to discuss the university's Step 2 response. The union filed a Step 3 grievance with the Chancellor on March 08, 2012. The Chancellor's resolution meeting occurred on March 28, 2012. The parties were unable to come to a resolution. The Chancellor provided his Step 3 response to the union on April 25, 2012. The union notified the University on May 09, 2012 they are considering advancing this grievance to the President at Step 4. However, the parties have agreed to hold a meeting with the UAF grievance committee, the union, and the university to attempt resolution and avoid advancing the grievance to Step 4.

- No grievances are pending.

ISSUES BEFORE THE ALASKA LABOR RELATIONS AGENCY

Unit Clarification Petition: On October 17, 2007, UAFT filed an unfair labor practice charge (ULP) with the Alaska Labor Relations Agency (ALRA) alleging that the university violated the CBA by its placement of new faculty with upper-division teaching assignments into the UNAC bargaining unit. In response, the university filed a unit clarification petition. On August 25, 2009, the ALRA accepted the university's Petition for Unit Clarification and placed the unfair labor practice complaints in abeyance pending the determination of that petition. The ALRA hearing began on April 05, 2010 and lasted until April 22, 2010. Post hearing briefs and response briefs were filed and the issue is before the Agency for a decision. On October 04, 2011, the ALRA notified the parties that they wanted briefing on the appropriateness of one unit of non-adjunct faculty at the university. File briefs were submitted to ALRA on December 21, 2011. A decision is pending.

ASEA Unfair Labor Practice: On April 19, 2011 the Alaska State Employees Association (ASEA) filed an unfair labor practice charge (ULP) with the Alaska Labor Relations Agency (ALRA) alleging that the university violated the Public Employment Relations Act (PERA) by interference, coercion, and restraining exercise of employee organizing rights. On April 20, 2011 the ALRA stated it would conduct an investigation. The university sent its response to ASEA's allegations on May 04, 2011. ASEA filed a response to UA's response on June 27, 2011. On November 09, 2011 ASEA filed a motion to amend the ULP. The amendment alleges defamation, refusal to provide a response to information in Excel format and alleges Staff Alliance as a company union. On December 09, 2011 ASEA filed a second motion to amend the ULP. The second motion alleges UA obstructed delivery of mail to UAF employees. The university responded to ASEA's motions on January 27, 2012. ASEA then filed an additional reply to UA's response on February 24, 2012. UA filed a reply to ASEA's reply on March 07, 2012. On April 12, 2012 the ALRA provided their preliminary findings and a partial dismissal. ASEA had filed 33 allegations. ALRA found that six of the allegations have probable cause. Those allegations in which probable cause were found include: two allegations relating to an e-mail to employees and ASEA regarding a 24-hour notice requirement before conducting organizing activities and surveillance of union activities; maintaining a no contact list; advising employees that ASEA is failing to comply with the law; and two allegations relating to Staff Alliance as a company union.

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS HIGHLIGHTS

- UAF Community and Technical College (formerly Tanana Valley Campus): A non-exempt employee at Tanana Valley Campus was non-retained pursuant to Regents' Policy and University Regulation. The employee grieved the issue and requested a hearing. After motion practice, the hearing officer issued a dispositive order on September 21, 2008, canceling the hearing and recommending that the UAF Chancellor uphold the non-retention decision. The employee filed suit in Superior Court challenging the university's right to nonretain non-probationary employees. The judge issued a preliminary order adverse to the university. The university's request for reconsideration was denied and the university subsequently filed a petition for review with the Alaska Supreme Court on November 12, 2010. The Court accepted the petition and consolidated this case with an Anchorage case raising similar issues but with a different result. Oral argument was held March 28, 2012; a decision is pending.
- UAA Police Department: An employee was terminated for cause and simultaneously issued a non-retention notice after writing himself parking tickets which he later destroyed to avoid paying parking fees. The employee filed a grievance, and a hearing was held in March. The hearing officer recommended upholding the termination and the chancellor agreed. The employee filed an administrative appeal on July 21, 2009. The judge reversed the cause termination but upheld the non-retention. The employee submitted a request for rehearing which was denied by the judge. The employee has appealed the matter to the Alaska Supreme Court, and the university cross appealed on the termination for cause. This case has been consolidated for hearing with the Fairbanks case discussed above. Oral argument was held March 28, 2012; a decision is pending.
