Note for the record: an in-depth discussion amongst the board, the president and Chancellor Sandeen ensued regarding UAA’s School of Education revoked accreditation.

B. Chancellors' Reports

Chancellor White said while college applications at UA are down, the population in Alaska is down and Alaska school district student numbers are down, enrollment at UAF is up because of the proactive enrollment team which is heavily recruiting in the Pacific Northwest highlighting UAF’s world-class research opportunities; shared that U.S. News & World Report ranked UAF’s online programs for a bachelor’s, master of business administration, graduate criminal justice and graduate education among the best noting UAF’s eCampus offers students a variety of educational choices; said strategic planning for the Troth Yeddha’ Indigenous Studies Center and Park is underway; stated effort to obtain the tier one research university rating continues noting a key component is the One Health Initiative; said utilizing P3 partnerships is being considered in the campus master plan process; stated UAF’s Title IX Office has three investigators that are attorneys and welcomed Regent-elects Hargraves and Randolph.

Chancellor Sandeen reviewed UAA’s facts and figures regarding the November 2018 earthquake damage noting everything was back online within five days, three business days, and students only missed one day of attendance; stated as the newcomer to UA leadership there is a real spirit of cooperative and collaborative work taking place across the system; said with the removal of accreditation from the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation, communication with affected students continues, work with the State of Alaska Department of Education and Early Development is underway, and a partnership with Stanford Teacher Education Program has been formed to develop a series of assessment tools for students in the education program.

Chancellor Caulfield welcomed Regent-elects Hargraves and Randolph; stated recruitment, retention, and completion continue to be priorities at UAS; said the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities site visit will take place April 24-26, 2019; said the Alaska College of Education is engaged with UAA and working collaboratively with colleagues and students regarding the UAA School of Education accreditation issue; commended Executive Dean Atwater for his work with the UAA issue noting work continues on a strategic plan to align education across the three universities; said UAS is preparing for its Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation in November 2019 working diligently on the self-study; noted a renewed partnership with Sealaska Heritage Institute; shared the progress taking place at the Auke Bay facility; said the Ted Stevens Internship is underway with 13 interns from across the three universities and thanked the Ted Stevens Foundation for its support of the program.

C. Governance Reports

https://www.boarddocs.com/ak/alaska/Board.nsf/Public
Chris Fallen, Faculty Alliance chair, noted the alliance met twice since the board’s November 2018 meeting; said a retreat in January 2019 will include approving a charge and bylaws for the GER maintenance committee, working on the evaluation process for the Faculty Initiative Fund and responding to the newly released Federal Department of Education Title IX regulations; stated the UAA School of Education accreditation announcement was not a surprise to the faculty due to significant turnover at UAA including key faculty and executive leadership positions; thanked Executive Dean Atwater for his work during this difficult time; noted the UAF and UAS education faculty are ready to assist students and said options for course sharing in multiple disciplines are being reviewed to increase opportunities for students to pursue studies at any UA campus.

Josh Watts, Staff Alliance chair, noted the alliance met twice since the board’s November 2018 meeting; stated UA executives continue to attend the alliance meetings and keep staff informed; thanked Chief Human Resources Officer McGee for her constant updates regarding compensation; encouraged executive leadership to continue its commitment to consistent, clear communication and its strong partnership with governance and stated while UA administration tackles the likely challenging budget process the alliance hopes that leadership will seek cost-saving opportunities that do not affect passionate and dedicated employees.

Nick Bursell, Coalition of Student Leaders chair, thanked the board for the opportunity to provide a report; stated the coalition held a meeting in December 2018 and approved a resolution opposing the newly released Federal Department of Education Title IX regulations; said the student advocacy legislative fly-in will take place in Juneau February 16-19, 2019 and stated with the recent UAA School of Education accreditation announcement that students are supported and set up for success going forward.

B. Planning and Development Committee - Items from December 19, 2018

1. Approval of the Governance Committee Charter

PASSED
"The Board of Regents approves the Governance Committee Charter as presented. This motion is effective January 18, 2019."

Governance Committee Charter

The Governance Committee shall be responsible for ongoing review and recommendations to enhance the quality and future viability of the board. The work of the committee revolves around four major areas: Board Role and Responsibilities, Board Knowledge, Board Effectiveness and Board Leadership.

Board Role and Responsibilities
- Leads the board in regularly reviewing and updating the board’s statement of its roles and areas of responsibility, and what is expected of individual board members.
- Assists the board in periodically updating and clarifying the primary areas of focus for the board, and shaping the board’s agenda for the future - based on the strategic plan.
- Conducts the president’s annual review.

Board Knowledge
- Designs and oversees a process of board orientation, including, but not limited to:
  - Information on the state of higher education in Alaska and the data leading to the selection of board priorities.
  - The different missions (role and scope) of the University of Alaska’s institutions.
  - The annual calendar or cycle for board policy development (e.g., approval of the budget).
  - Board protocol for respecting the lines of authority and responsibility between the board and the president, and the president and the chancellors.
  - Board protocols for requesting information and adding items to the board’s agendas.
- Designs and implements an ongoing program of board information and education.

Board Effectiveness
- Initiates periodic assessment of the board’s performance. Proposes, as appropriate, changes in board structure and operations.
- Provides ongoing counsel to the board chair and other board leaders on steps they might take to enhance board effectiveness.
- Regularly reviews the board’s practices regarding member participation, conflict of interest, etc., and suggests improvements as needed.
- Periodically reviews and updates the board’s policy guidelines and practices.

Board Leadership
- Takes the lead in succession planning, taking steps to recruit and prepare future board leaders.
- Nominates board members for election as board officers.

Unless otherwise specifically directed by action of the Board of Regents, the Governance Committee will be advisory to the board. Decisions of the committee may be modified by action of the board.
