Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - Earnings on endowments are used to support the University of Alaska as specified by our donors including, but not limited to, scholarships, fellowships, professorships and department support. The University of Alaska and the Foundation are invested jointly in the Consolidated Endowment Fund. The University has 46% ownership and the Foundation has 54% ownership.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - The foundation is an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is generally not subject to federal income taxes. Contributions to the foundation are deductible for tax purposes by the donor, subject to the normal limitations imposed by the taxing authorities. However, the foundation is subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded from any unrelated trade or business. In the opinion of management any unrelated business income tax would be immaterial to the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The foundation is no longer subject to U.S. federal or state income tax examinations by tax authorities for fiscal years prior to June 30, 2011. The foundation recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs.

Form 990, Part I, Line 6 - In FY14 there were 36 individuals that volunteered as trustees and committee members for the foundation. They provided over 2,000 hours of service based on meeting attendance and preparation, and conference attendance representing the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 1a - The Executive Committee consists of no more than 6 members, who are also members of the governing body. The committee acts only during intervals between meetings of the Board of Trustees and may exercise all of the authority and powers of the Board of Trustees in the management of the affairs of the Foundation, with the exception that they may not amend the Bylaws.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2 - Mary and John Hughes have a family relationship as well as a business relationship. Jim Johnsen and Anand Vadapalli have a business relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The Accounting Manager prepared a detailed preliminary review of the Form 990 for the Foundation President, Treasurer, Chief Investment Officer, and Chairman of the Finance and Audit Committee for discussion. At this meeting the staff resolved issues and defined key components of this filing. A full comprehensive review was performed by an exempt organization tax professional prior to the final executive summary presentation made to the Finance and Audit Committee during a regularly scheduled meeting. All trustees were invited to this presentation, and full copies of the Form 990 were posted and available for review on a secure section of the Foundation's website. In addition, the Form 990 was made available at the University of Alaska Foundation website within 10 days of filing, which was accessible by all board members as well as the general public.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The University of Alaska Foundation has a Conflict of Interest Policy which applies to board members, all committees, subcommittees, officers, employees and volunteers having board-delegated powers. This policy is distributed annually and each recipient reviews the policy, signs it and returns it to the Board Coordinator indicating either no conflicts or disclosing any existing or foreseeable conflicts. Any disclosures are then forwarded to the Executive Committee for review and action. The policy provides that potential conflicts are to be disclosed to the board, committee, officer or supervisor as soon as practicable after becoming aware of a potential conflict. If a conflict is disclosed in a meeting, the person of interest is asked to leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement that results in the conflict. If appropriate, another person or committee may be appointed to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. The nature of the potential conflict, the determination by the board or committee, and the details of any votes taken are documented in the minutes of the meeting. Any person violating the Conflict of Interest Policy shall be subject to appropriate discipline, including dismissal or removal from office.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - Compensation is not approved by the Board of Trustees since these individuals are not compensated by the University of Alaska Foundation.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The articles of incorporation and financial statements are available to the general public on the Foundation website, www.alaska.edu/foundation. The conflict of interest policy is available to the general public upon request.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 9 - Actuarial adjustment of remainder trust liability was reclassified for $325,282. Uncollectible pledges were reclassified for <$29,947>. The foundation refunded four contributions for a total of $110 during the year.
