Institutional Research System-wide Council
Charter

Mission
The council exists to promote and support system-wide capacity for collection and analysis of data to guide decisions that improve success on behalf of the University of Alaska System of Higher education, with an emphasis on optimizing resources for the achievement of UAA, UAF, UAS, SW’s and UA’s missions.

Scope
The scope of the Institutional Research System-wide council is to provide oversight of the following functions, both central and distributed:

- Collaborative knowledge network (ongoing)
- Data architecture, governance and administration
- Education and advocacy regarding data-informed decision making

Goals
1) Develop and lead collaborative, cross-functional plans, strategies, programs and activities, supporting, facilitating and otherwise informing the mission of the council. Priority is on process improvement, standardization, and automation. Promote trust and credibility.

   Deliverable: Creation and implementation of a Collaborative Knowledge Network (CKN).

2) Establish and maintain a common data architecture and data governance system, including goals, policy, common procedures, strategies, and system of documentation.

   Deliverable: Define and advance integration of basic, common data architecture principles and best practices across administrative support and mission area functions system-wide, i.e. standards for data acquisition, accessibility and integrity, reporting protocols and tools, and improving business practices.

3) Promote a university culture that has a basic understanding of, and systematically places value on, the collection and analysis of data to guide decisions that improve success, i.e. data-informed decision-making.

   Deliverable: Widespread, demonstrated buy-in to the value of data-informed decision making across all university levels and functions, from executives, to technical decision makers, to data entry personnel.

Subcommittee(s)
The council will designate sub-committees, teams or individuals responsible to accomplish objectives in support of the council mission and scope. These may be permanent or ad hoc in nature, and are accountable to ensure the assigned objectives are successfully completed, including communication of outcomes, recommendations, initiatives and/or decisions to the Committee.
