- Suggestion from a UAF department to add text to UAOnline class schedule search: Next to the campus selection box add text "Check all that apply"
All agreed this is a good idea. UAF also requested they would like their e-Learning campus to be listed in alpha order between Chukchi and Fairbanks. No objections.
- Anyone having issues with open search? See attached screen shots.
The Open Search tool in UAOnline class searches (both secure and non-secure) is giving inconsistent results. Examples: failing to find all "Yoga" classes when all are coded alike. (This was not due to coding in SSASECT, SSASYLLB, SSATEXT, VRR flag, or catalog screens). Also fails to find courses by CRN or by course number without the A, F, or S. All agreed Open Search needs upgrade. Members please keep and eye on search problems and send open-search failures that are repeatable to the list serve so programmers can see some examples.

Lora mentioned College Scheduler, currently with the Reg team, that will assist students in building a schedule around their own work hours, lunch break, etc., finding courses that will fit their schedule. See Reg team list serve notes, or minutes. To try in UAOnline LrgP, select Student Services, Registration, and Schedule Planner.

Gianna mentioned that Michael has changed job positions and will no longer be working with the CCS team. Thank you Michael.
